Decision of the Tribunal

Upon hearing from counsel for the Respondent and the Applicant in person that all matters had been agreed by the tenant, in accordance with a written agreement signed by both parties, the Tribunal has no jurisdiction to determine the matters and the substantive Application is withdrawn. ]

The parties having agreed in writing, the Tribunal orders under section 20C that 50% of the costs incurred by the Respondent in connection with the proceedings are not to be regarded as relevant costs to be taken into account in determining the amount of any service charge payable by the tenant or any of the leaseholders of 14-15 Hoxton Square.

The application

1. The Applicant sought a determination pursuant to s.27A of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1985 ("the 1985 Act") as to the amount of service charges payable by the Applicant for the years 2009, 2010, 2011.
2. The Applicant also sought an order under section 20C that costs incurred by the Respondent in connection with the proceedings are not to be regarded as relevant costs to be taken into account in determining the amount of any service charge

The hearing

3. The Applicant appeared in person at the hearing and the Respondent was represented by Mr D Kilcoyne of counsel. Ms Corrigan of Montalt Management also attended.
4. The start of the hearing timed for 10.00 was delayed while the parties entered into discussions seeking to narrow the issues between them. At the end of the morning the parties reported good progress and the start was deferred until 14.00. The parties then reported that they had reached agreement on all matters and proceeded to record their agreement in a four page document which was handed to the Tribunal.

Jurisdiction

5. Section 27A (4)(a) of the Act provides that no application (for a determination whether a service charge is payable or would be payable) may be made in respect of a matter which has been agreed or admitted by the tenant.
6. Accordingly, on the agreement by the tenant on all matters, the Tribunal has no jurisdiction

Application under s.20C

7. Having read the agreement of the parties, the Tribunal makes the order by consent of the parties that the Respondent will not pass 50% of its costs incurred in connection with the proceedings before the Tribunal through the service charge.
