

MERGER ANNOUNCEMENT

Proposed acquisition by AMP Capital Investors Limited and M&G Investment Management Limited of joint control of Adven Group Oy

28 February 2017

The Competition and Consumer Protection Commission has today cleared the proposed transaction whereby AMP Capital Investors (European Infrastructure Lux No. 2) S.à r.l. and Infracapital Sisu SLP LP would acquire joint control of Adven Group Oy. The proposed transaction was notified under the Competition Act 2002 on 10 February 2017.

The Commission has formed the view that the proposed transaction will not substantially lessen competition in any market for goods or services in the State. The Commission will publish the reasons for its determination on its website no later than 60 working days after the date of the determination and after allowing the parties the opportunity to request that confidential information be removed from the published version.

Additional Information

AMP Capital Investors (European Infrastructure Lux No. 2) S.à r.l. is ultimately controlled by AMP Capital Investors Limited. AMP Capital Investors Limited is an Australian investment house with offices worldwide, operating across a broad range of asset classes, from fixed income and equities to direct investments and multi-manager funds.

Infracapital Sisu SLP LP is a limited partnership which is managed by M&G Investment Management Limited. M&G Investment Management Limited is indirectly owned and controlled by Prudential plc, a financial services group headquartered in the United Kingdom, with operations in Asia, the United States and the United Kingdom. M&G Investment Management Limited is part of the investment management division of Prudential plc in Europe, which operates under the M&G Investments brand and manages fixed income, equity and real estate assets for retail and institutional investors.

Adven Group Oy supplies energy infrastructure and services in Estonia, Finland and Sweden.