

5th June, 1986

Superior Number Appeal against sentence

Ian McKernan

The Bailiff: "Mr. Dart, we cannot find that the Inferior Number erred in principle. It was a well noted sentence. It was at the lowest end of the scale, that could possibly be imagined, and every factor that could be taken into account was taken into account.

The appeal is dismissed.