

ROYAL COURT
30th October, 1987.

Before: Bailiff,
Jurat Perreé,
Jurat Orchard

Her Majesty's Attorney General

-v-

Amal Grow Limited

Infraction of Regulation 7(1) of the Safeguarding of Workers (Machinery & Woodworking Machines((Jersey) Regulations, 1967.

The Attorney General.
Advocate S. C. K. Pallot for Amal Grow, Ltd.

Bailiff: "We have listened to you Mr. Pallot and have read the letter which your client company sent to the Social Security Department and take into account their general record of being responsible employers, and we think that we can make some reduction, but only a little reduction, in the conclusions to show that and therefore the decision of the Court is that your client Company will be fined £600 and pay £250 costs."

DEPUTY BAILIFF: Well, if that is your professional undertaking, Mr. Le Marquand, the Court will accept it. Otherwise there are problems in allowing the individual defendants to leave the jurisdiction.

ADVOCATE LE MARQUAND: It's my professional undertaking Sir.

DEPUTY BAILIFF: Very well, that is accepted. A fortnight to pay on Mr. Le Marquand's undertaking.
