JUDGMENT

THE BAILIFF: Mrs Whittaker and Miss Roscouet, we really feel that your clients having been convicted of certainly a grave and criminal assault, had it been just a common assault we might have thought differently, but a grave and criminal assault is a serious offence and in view of their records and the likelihood that they may well receive a custodial sentence, (of course one cannot anticipate that) we feel that it would be wrong to release them on bail and therefore they are remanded in custody. *
