

ROYAL COURT

26th February, 1988

Before: Sir P.L. Crill, C.B.E., Bailiff assisted by Jurat J.A.G. Coutanche and Jurat G.H. Hamon

Representation of Martin Francis
Heuzé seeking bail

Advocate S.A. Meiklejohn for the Representor,
The Attorney General for the Crown

JUDGMENT

THE BAILIFF: As the Attorney has said, Mr Meiklejohn, this is a question of reviewing the decision of the learned Assistant Magistrate and we cannot find that he erred in reaching his decision or took matters into account he should not have. He had full regard to the law and the case of Makarios which in our view is an important case and we accept what you have said on that point. In any case your client has pleaded guilty to a serious offence of grave and criminal assault which would merit quite a substantial term of imprisonment and under the circumstances we are not prepared to grant bail.
