The Solicitor General
Advocate M. St. J. O'Connell for the applicant.

JUDGMENT

THE BAILIFF: The Court has heard your application but it cannot find that the Magistrate misdirected himself or took into account matters he should not have taken into account, or failed to take into account matters which he should have. Everything that was said today was before him, perhaps a little more than you have said today. We cannot think he erred and the application is refused.
