

ROYAL COURT

14th December, 1990

198A.

Before: The Bailiff, and
Jurats Myles and Herbert

Infraction: John William Scott

Numerous infractions of Article 10(1) of the Social Security (Collection of Contributions) (Jersey) Order, 1975, and Article 36(1) of the Social Security (Jersey) Law, 1974. Defendant fully co-operative with authorities; record of previous minor offences but only one offence in the last 14 years; gambling habit in the past.

The Attorney General.
Advocate J. Gollop for the defendant.

JUDGMENT

BAILIFF: The conclusions are granted. You are fined a total of £2,000 or 12 weeks' imprisonment in default of payment; together with £100 costs. However, you will have one month in which to pay.

No authorities.