

ROYAL COURT

21st December, 1990

201.

Before: The Deputy Bailiff, and Jurats Le Boutillier and Hamon

The Attorney General

- v -

Duane Anthony Pockett

Application for bail following remand for sentencing by the Superior Number on one charge of possession of a controlled drug with intent to supply (being Lysergide).

The Attorney General.
Advocate R. Renouf for the accused.

JUDGMENT

DEPUTY BAILIFF: The application for bail is refused. It would be totally contrary to the policy of this Court with regard to class "A" drugs and it is as the Attorney said only in exceptional circumstances that bail will be granted to a person who is already convicted, particularly where a custodial sentence is inevitable.

Therefore, Pockett, you are remanded in custody to appear before the Superior Number of this Court on the 5th February, 1991, at 10 a.m. for your sentence.

No authorities.
