JUDGMENT

THE DEPUTY BAILIFF: The Court, in accordance with the conclusions of the Crown Advocate is going to remand this case for 4 weeks, and is going to order, as requested by Mr Landick, the preparation of a further psychiatric report in respect of the defendant Mitchell.

So far as Monins is concerned he will be remanded on a warning, with a requirement that he report to the Police Station. He will surrender his passport. It will be a further condition that he notifies the police of any change of address.

Mitchell, the Court is going to remand you on a warning as requested by your Counsel, but I want you to understand that that is not necessarily any indication of what the sentence of the Court is going to be in due course; the ordinary sentence for arson is one of imprisonment, and the fact that we are going to remand you on a warning is not an indication of what the Court is going to do in 4 weeks time. Please understand that.

You will be obliged to surrender your passport and you will report as at present on Monday, Wednesday & Friday at the Police Station and you will observe the same curfew as has been previously ordered between 10.00pm and 8.00am. You will also be required to notify the police of any change of address. Subject to all those conditions and terms the matter is adjourned for 4 weeks.

No Authorities.
