1629. July 18. MOREIS against JOHNSTOUN.

A BOND alleged to be prescribed, because not pursued within forty years. It was replied, That, within the time of prescription, letters of horning were raised upon the said bond, and the party charged therewith ;—which the Lords sustained, as a deed that stays prescription, and more notorious nor taking of a document prescribed by the Act of Parliament James VI, Par. 5, cap. 22.
