

COMMUNION-ELEMENTS.

1742. June 9.

HERITORS of STRATHMIGLO against Mr GEORGE GILLESPIE.

No. 1.

A MINISTER may sue at the instance of any of his heritors, within the years of prescription, to put into the poor's box, the money allowed for purchasing communion-elements of such years as the sacrament was not administered. See POOR.

COMMUNITY.

1736. July 13.

ANDERSON against CAMPBELL.

No. 1.

CORPORATION may subsist in the person of one. See this Case, voce JURISDICTION.

1740. June 4, 7.

MITCHELSON, and OTHER GOLDSMITHS of EDINBURGH, against
M'KENZIE and LESLY.

No. 2.

A MEMBER of this Corporation giving over his employment, and not keeping shop, this does not deprive him of his Corporation privileges, or right of voting at the meetings, if he reside in the town, and pay his share of the burdens. 2dly, The being keeper of the Parliament House, and one of the macers of Justiciary, are not incompatible with the office of goldsmith.