PART I.

INTERDICTION.

1776. July 17.

ANDREW THOMSON, Tenant in BOGSIDE, against JOHN THOMSON of BOGSIDE.

IN an application for interdiction, the Court issued the following order:
' On report of Lord Covington, having advised the informations and proofs,
' hinc inde, and having called before them the defender, and asked him several
' questions, The Lords find, That the defender is a weak facile man, unfit to
' manage his affairs, and therefore they hereby interdict him, and discharge him
' to act in any of his affairs or transactions, without the concurrence of Alex-
' ander Hamilton of Gilkerscleugh, Robert Dick of Garthshyrie, Esqrs. and
' Captain John Elphinston of Cumbernauld, or any two of them, or the survivor
' of them, whom the Lords hereby nominate and appoint to be his interdictors,
' and grant warrant for letters of publication; and ordain the same to be pub-
' lished, and registrate in common form, and decern.'
