The Abertay University (Scotland) Order of Council 2019

Made - - - - - 15th May 2019
Laid before the Scottish
Parliament - - - - - 17th May 2019
Coming into force - - - - - 1st September 2019

At the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 15th day of May 2019
By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council

Their Lordships make the following Order in exercise of the powers conferred by sections 45 and 60(3) of the Further and Higher Education (Scotland) Act 1992(1) and all other powers enabling them to do so.

PART 1

Citation, commencement and interpretation

Citation and commencement

1. This Order may be cited as the Abertay University (Scotland) Order of Council 2019 and comes into force on 1 September 2019.

Interpretation

2. In this Order—

“the 2016 Act” means the Higher Education Governance (Scotland) Act 2016(2),

“the 1975 Scheme” means the Dundee College of Technology Scheme 1975(3),

“Chair of Court” means the person referred to in article 8(a),

“objects of the University” means the objects of the University as set out in article 4,

(1) 1992 c.37.

(2) 2016 asp 15.

(3) S.I. 1975/698, as amended by schedule 2 of S.I. 1994/1980. The 1975 Scheme had previously been amended by S.I. 1988/1715, but S.I. 1988/1715 was revoked by article 42 of S.I. 1994/1980, insofar as it applied to the University, and the previous amendments to the 1975 Scheme ceased to have effect.

“Principal” means the Principal and Vice-Chancellor referred to in article 17 or any person authorised, whether for the purposes of this Order or otherwise, for the time being to act as Principal and Vice-Chancellor of the University,

“Senate” means the body referred to in article 20,

“University” means Abertay University, a designated institution under section 44 of the Further and Higher Education (Scotland) Act 1992⁽⁴⁾ and renamed in accordance with section 49 of that Act as narrated in article 3,

“University Court” means the governing body of the University constituted as a body corporate by paragraph 3 of the 1975 Scheme⁽⁵⁾ and renamed as narrated in article 3,

“Vice-Principal” means a Vice-Principal and Deputy Vice-Chancellor referred to in article 18.

PART 2

The University

Name

3.—(1) The name of the University, previously “University of Abertay Dundee”, “Dundee Institute of Technology” and “Dundee College of Technology”, is Abertay University⁽⁶⁾.

(2) The name of the governing body of the University, previously “the University Court of the University of Abertay Dundee”, “The Governors of Dundee Institute of Technology” and “The Governors of Dundee College of Technology”, is the University Court of Abertay University.

(3) The change of names effected by paragraphs (1) and (2) does not affect the rights or obligations of any person or render defective any legal proceedings and any reference in any agreement, instrument or document or other writing in force or in existence immediately before the coming into force of this Order to—

- (a) the University of Abertay Dundee, the Dundee Institute of Technology or the Dundee College of Technology,
- (b) the University Court of Abertay University, The Governors of Dundee Institute of Technology or The Governors of Dundee College of Technology, is to be read as a reference to Abertay University or the University Court of Abertay University as appropriate.

Objects of the University

4. The objects of the University are to provide education, to undertake and carry out research and to make suitable and adequate provision for teaching, learning, scholarship and research.

⁽⁴⁾ Section 44 was amended by paragraph 6(1)(c) of schedule 3 of the Further and Higher Education (Scotland) Act 2005 (asp 6).

⁽⁵⁾ Paragraph 3 was amended by schedule 2 of S.I. 1994/1980.

⁽⁶⁾ The name of the University was changed to Abertay University in accordance with section 49 of the Further and Higher Education (Scotland) Act 1992 by resolution of the University Court dated 14 November 2018 and consent of the Privy Council dated 6 February 2019.

PART 3

The University Court

Powers and functions of the University Court

5.—(1) The University Court is to conduct the affairs of the University and carry out and promote the objects of the University.

(2) The University Court has all the rights, powers and privileges necessary and expedient for the purposes of, or in connection with, the furtherance of the objects of the University, and in particular has the powers and functions set out in schedule 1.

Delegation of powers, functions and duties of the University Court

6.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), the University Court may delegate any of its powers, functions or duties to any person or body according to a scheme made by the University Court.

4. Paragraphs 27, 31, 43, 49 to 52 and 54 and schedule 3 of the 1975 Scheme(10) are revoked.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order sets out the governance arrangements for Abertay University (“the University”), replacing the arrangements set out in the University of Abertay Dundee (Scotland) Order of Council 1994, which is revoked.

Article 1 provides that the Order comes into force on 1 September 2019. Article 2 provides various definitions of terms that are used in the Order.

Articles 3 and 4 in Part 2 of the Order make provision for the University. Article 3 narrates the change of name of the University to Abertay University and of the governing body to the University Court of Abertay University and provides that references to previous names of both are to be read as references to the new names from the date of coming into force of this Order. Article 4 sets out the objects of the University.

Articles 5 to 15 in Part 3 of the Order make provision for the University Court. Article 5 makes provision for the powers and functions of the University Court, which are further set out in schedule 1. Article 6 provides that the University Court may delegate its powers, functions and duties but sets out matters that must not be delegated. Article 7 provides for the University Court to make appropriate financial arrangements for the University, which includes keeping accounts and

(8) Paragraph 2 was amended by schedule 2 of S.I. 1994/1980.

(9) Paragraph 2A was inserted by schedule 2 of S.I. 1994/1980.

(10) Paragraphs 43 and 49 and schedule 3 were amended by schedule 2 of S.I. 1994/1980.

investing funds. Further provision for financial arrangements is set out within the powers and functions of the University Court in schedule 1.

Article 8 sets out the composition of the University Court which is to comprise a Chair of Court who is the senior lay member by virtue of section 8 of the Higher Education Governance (Scotland) Act 2016 (“the 2016 Act”), the Principal and Vice-Chancellor (“the Principal”), one or two Vice-Principal and Deputy Vice-Chancellors (“Vice-Principals”) nominated by the Principal, two persons elected by and from the staff of the University, two persons nominated by a trade union with a connection to the University (one from among the academic staff and one from among the support staff), two persons nominated by the students’ association, one person nominated by the Senate and 10 to 14 members appointed by the University Court (“lay members”).

Article 9 makes further provision for the appointment of the Chair of Court who is to be appointed in accordance with the 2016 Act and an appointment process prescribed by the University Court. Article 10 provides that the University Court is to appoint a Vice-Chair from among the lay members who, in the absence of the Chair of Court or when that position is vacant, is to chair meetings of the University Court and exercise the functions of the Chair of Court. In the absence of both the Chair of Court and the Vice-Chair at any meeting, the University Court is to appoint a chair from among the lay members.

Article 11 provides that the University Court is to make rules for the election of members by the staff and is to consult the staff before making those rules. Article 12 provides that the University Court is to make rules for the nomination of the members nominated by the Principal, trade union and students’ association (and, in relation to the trade union and students’ association nominees, is to consult the representatives of anyone with a right of nomination under and affected by the proposed rules). The University Court is to approve rules made by the Senate for nomination of the member nominated by that body.

Article 13 provides that the University Court is to make rules relating to the term of office of its members, eligibility for re-appointment and maximum term of office. Article 14 provides that the University Court may make rules relating to the procedure for resignation and removal of its members. Article 15 provides that the University Court may make rules for identifying and managing conflicts of interest of its members and members of its committees.

Articles 16 to 19 in Part 4 of the Order make provision relating to the appointment of the Chancellor, Principal, Vice-Principals and Secretary to the University Court. Article 16 provides that the University Court is to appoint a Chancellor as the titular head of the University who is to confer degrees and other awards. Article 17 provides for the appointment by the University Court of the Principal and for the University Court to make arrangements for the discharge of such of its functions by the Principal as it may prescribe. In carrying out those functions the Principal has all the powers of the University Court but is subject to its overall control. In the absence of the Chancellor, the Principal is to carry out any of the functions of the Chancellor that the University Court may prescribe. Article 18 provides for the appointment of such Vice-Principals as the University Court considers appropriate and makes provision for the functions of the Vice-Principals. In the absence of the Chancellor and the Principal, the University Court may appoint a Vice-Principal to carry out such of the functions of the Chancellor as it may prescribe. Article 19 provides that the University Court is to appoint a Secretary to the University Court and is to prescribe the Secretary’s duties.

Articles 20 and 21 in Part 5 of the Order make provision relating to the Senate. Article 20 provides that the composition of the Senate is to be determined by the University Court in accordance with the 2016 Act and the University Court is to make rules relating to the term of office of Senate members, including eligibility for re-appointment. Article 21 requires for the proceedings of the Senate to be regulated by a scheme made by the Senate and approved by the University Court.

Part 6 of the Order makes provision relating to the students’ association. Article 22 provides that the University Court is to make a scheme for the constitution and functions of a students’ association which is to include rules for the students’ association to make representations to the University Court.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

It provides that the University Court is to approve the constitution of the students' association and any changes to the constitution, and is to review the constitution at intervals of not more than 5 years. It also provides that the University Court is to pay any monies to the students' association that it considers appropriate.

Articles 23 to 25 in Part 7 of the Order make miscellaneous provision. Article 23 makes transitional provision for the Chairman of the University Court and the president of the students' association who are in office immediately before the coming into force of this Order to be treated for the remainder of their period in office as if appointed under article 8 of this Order. Article 24 makes amendments to the Dundee College of Technology Scheme 1975 as set out in schedule 2. Finally, article 25 revokes the University of Abertay Dundee (Scotland) Order of Council 1994.
