As a member of @middletemple's @lgbtqforum and as one of the Inn's @cityoflondon local councillors, I am sad to see the Inn offer a platform to a well known 'gender critical' barrister who champions transphobic causes at what should have been a celebration of #LGBTQ solidarity.

LGBTQ+ Solidarity at the Bar @LGBTQBarristers · 15 Nov 2021

This morning, a group of over 100 barristers, pupils and students sent a letter to Middle Temple to express our profound disappointment at the organisation of the inaugural Middle Temple LGBTQ+ Forum. This is the letter in full. Please read it.

So, here comes Section 28 again in a different guise. I just despair. It makes me cry. Of course teachers should accurately reflect that some children might be trans. I wish mine had. 😞

How wonderful to see so many trans and non-binary people and our allies in Whitehall today calling for the ban on conversion therapy to be fully inclusive of all #LGBTQ people. #TransRightsAreHumanRights #ProtectTransKids #BanConversionTherapy

I have listened to @BBCr4today for over 40 years. It has been the mainstay of my news consumption since I was at school. Now I dread turning on the radio in case Justin Webb is presenting as I know he will always shoehorn in a transphobic story, just as he did yet again today. 😞

"What we do know is that trans people – and, in particular, trans women – have long been a disproportionate obsession of the UK media. And this report is one case of many showing just how disproportionate that obsession is."

Well done to the @nmcnews who have clearly thought hard about the challenge to their @stonewalluk membership and have concluded, quite rightly, that they should remain in membership as part of their EDI commitment. #TransRightsAreHumanRights

We recently received a letter about our membership of the Stonewall workplace programme. We've carefully considered this letter and thought deeply about our responsibility to promote equality and tackle discrimination. Read our response - nmc.org.uk/news/news-and-...

Many congratulations to @Forest_HillSch on winning this @stonewalluk award and well done to @LewishamCouncil for supporting the school in its achievements. This is a great sign that the school and its local authority are committed to #LGBTQ+ #inclusion. 🏳️‍🌈

So he's at it again. @BBCr4today's @JustinOnWeb dedicates five minutes of this morning's show defending notorious #trans hater Professor Kathleen Stock. Why is Webb allowed to continually hijack the premier morning @BBCNews show with his personal agenda? Why no alternative view?

Well done to @DavidLammy for standing up to @BBCr4today's transphobic nonsense, creating a climate of fear and hatred against #trans people. Why does @BBCNews insist on focusing on a tiny minority who simply want to get on and live their lives rather than major political issues?

Why do @BBCNews allow @JustinOnWeb to continually press his own personal anti-trans hobby horse on @BBCr4today? This morning's interview with @AngelaRayner was a disgrace. Well done to her in stating that @UKLabour believe that #TransRightsAreHumanRights. #TransWomenAreWomen

As a trustee of @LGBTfdn, I am proud we are supporting @Mermaids_Gender in their appeal against @ChtyCommission's decision to grant charitable status to LGB Alliance, which is little more than a fringe group fuelled by transphobia aimed at dividing #LGBTQ+ communities.
