

EMPLOYMENT TRIBUNALS

Claimant: Mr R Marshall

Respondent: T & L Optical Instruments Limited

JUDGMENT

The claim is struck out.

REASONS

1. By a letter dated 13 April 2017 the Tribunal gave the claimant an opportunity to make representations, as to why the claim should not be struck out because

- The respondent is a dissolved company and no claim can be pursued against a dissolved company, which no longer exists as a legal entity.
- The claim has no reasonable prospect of success.

2. The claimant has failed to make representations in writing as to why this should not be done.
