

EMPLOYMENT TRIBUNALS

Claimant: Mr M Doolan

Respondent: Citizens Advice South Lincolnshire

JUDGMENT

The claim is struck out.

REASONS

1. By a letter dated 22nd November 2017 the Tribunal have the Claimant an opportunity to make representations why the claim of unfair dismissal should not be struck out because he lacked the requisite period of continuous service to bring the claim. No representations were received and the unfair dismissal claim is therefore struck out on the basis that the Claimant has no standing to bring that complaint.
2. By a letter dated 19 February 2018 the Tribunal gave the Claimant an opportunity to make representations or to request a hearing, as to why the complaint of breach of contract relating to notice should not be struck out on the basis that he had given notice of his resignation and there was therefore no breach of contract. The Claimant has not made sufficient representations to show why the complaint should not be struck out as he has not suggested that he did not give and work the notice period that his complaint relates to.
3. The hearing fixed for 2 May 2018 will not take place.
