JUDGMENT

Employment Tribunals Rules of Procedure 2013 – Rule 21

The first - fourth respondent not having presented a response to the claims and the Secretary of State making legal submissions prior to the rule 21 Judgment, and on the information before the Judge, the judgment of the Tribunal is that:

1. The claimant's complaint under section 189 of the Trade Union and Labour Relations (Consolidation) Act 1992 ("the 1992 Act") of a failure by the second respondent to comply with the requirements of section 188 of the 1992 Act at the following sites:

- a) Peterborough Westpoint;
- b) Manchester Cardinal House;

is well-founded.

2. The Tribunal orders that the second respondent, by way of a protective award under section 189(3) of the 1992 Act, pay to all those employees who were of a description in respect of which The Transport Salaried Staff Association was recognised for the purposes of collective bargaining at the following sites:

- a) Peterborough Westpoint;
- b) Manchester Cardinal House;

a payment equivalent to remuneration for the period of 90 days beginning on 23 September 2019.

3. The Employment Protection (Recoupment of Jobseeker's Allowance and Income Support) Regulations 1996 apply to these awards.

REASONS

1. The claimant claimed a protective award in respect of breaches of the collective consultation requirements under the 1992 Act. No response was presented to the claim by the first - fourth respondents. The Official Receiver subsequently confirmed that the first – fourth respondents would not be contesting the protective award claims.

2. The first - fourth respondents are in compulsory liquidation and by order of the High Court dated 4 February 2021 permission was granted for the claims to proceed.

3. On full consideration of the file of proceedings it was possible to issue this Judgment under rule 21 of the Employment Tribunals (Constitution and Rules of Procedure) Regulations 2013 in respect of the claim against the second respondent for those who worked at:

- a) Peterborough Westpoint;
- b) Manchester Cardinal House;

for a protective award without a hearing. Code P under the case numbers reflects this.

4. On the information provided, the Tribunal makes the following findings.

5. The second respondent employed over 20 employees at the following sites:

- (a) Peterborough Westpoint;
- (b) Manchester Cardinal House;

6. The Transport Salaried Staff Association was a recognised trade union for the purposes of collective bargaining at those sites for:

- (a) all salaried staff;
- (b) role levels 1-5 (and/or grade A-D);
- (c) those who worked within the following business areas at Peterborough (Westpoint) and Manchester (Cardinal House) in:
  - (i) UK retail central operations and Head Office retail support;

- (ii) Sales centre/UK contact centre;
- (iii) Corporate and group – HR, comms and PR, audit, finance, marketing and customer insight, property and procurement, central distribution, support functions and financial services and health and safety.

7. The first - fourth respondents went into compulsory liquidation on 23 September 2019. At 1:47am on 23 September 2019 the Official Receiver was appointed. Later that day the claimant was notified of collective redundancies with immediate effect.

8. There was no proper warning or notice given to or consultation with the recognised trade union. In addition, no employee representatives had been elected or appointed for any such consultation within section 188A of the 1992 Act.

9. In the circumstances, the second respondent is in breach of the duty under section 188 of the 1992 Act and the Tribunal makes an award under section 189 in favour of the claimant for the maximum protected period of 90 days commencing on 23 September 2019.

10. The second respondent is advised of the provisions of regulation 6 of the Employment Protection (Recoupment of Jobseeker's Allowance and Income Support) Regulations 1996, such that, within ten days of the decision in these proceedings being promulgated or as soon as is reasonably practicable, the second respondent must comply with the provisions of regulation 6 of the 1996 Regulations and, in particular, must supply to the Secretary of State the following information in writing:

- (a) The name, address and national insurance number of every employee to whom the award relates; and
- (b) The date of termination of the employment of each such employee.

11. The second respondent will not be required to make any payment under the protective awards made until it has received a recoupment notice from the Secretary of State or notification that the Secretary of State does not intend to serve a recoupment notice having regard to the provisions of regulation 7(2). The Secretary of State must normally serve such recoupment notice or notification on the employer within 21 days of receipt of the required information from the second respondent.

12. It was not possible to issue a rule 21 judgment for the claimant's complaint under section 189 of the Trade Union and Labour Relations (Consolidation) Act 1992 ("the 1992 Act") of a failure by the first - fourth respondents to comply with the requirements of section 188 of the 1992 Act at the retail store sites because the parties are required to provide further information to the Tribunal.

ANNEX TO THE JUDGMENT (PROTECTIVE AWARDS)

Recoupment of Benefits

The following particulars are given pursuant to the Employment Protection (Recoupment of Benefits) Regulations 1996, SI 1996 No 2349.

The respondent is under a duty to give the Secretary of State the following information in writing: (a) the name, address and National Insurance number of every employee to whom the protective award relates; and (b) the date of termination (or proposed termination) of the employment of each such employee.

That information shall be given within 10 days, commencing on the day on which the Tribunal announced its judgment at the hearing. If the Tribunal did not announce its judgment at the hearing, the information shall be given within the period of 10 days, commencing on the day on which the relevant judgment was sent to the parties. In any case in which it is not reasonably practicable for the respondent to do so within those times, then the information shall be given as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter.

No part of the remuneration due to an employee under the protective award is payable until either (a) the Secretary of State has served a notice (called a Recoupment Notice) on the respondent to pay the whole or part thereof to the Secretary of State or (b) the Secretary of State has notified the respondent in writing that no such notice is to be served.

This is without prejudice to the right of an employee to present a complaint to an Employment Tribunal of the employer's failure to pay remuneration under a protective award.

If the Secretary of State has served a Recoupment Notice on the respondent, the sum claimed in the Recoupment Notice in relation to each employee will be whichever is the less of:

- (a) the amount (less any tax or social security contributions which fall to be deducted the refrom by the employer) accrued due to the employee in respect of so much of the protected period as falls before the date on which the Secretary of State receives from the employer the information referred to above; OR
- (b) (i) the amount paid by way of or paid as on account of jobseeker's allowance, income-related employment and support allowance or income support to the employee for any period which coincides with any part of the protected period falling before the date described in (a) above; or (ii) in the case of an employee entitled to an award of universal credit for any period (“the UC period”) which coincides with any part of the period to which the prescribed element is attributable, any amount paid by way of or on account of universal credit for the UC period that would not have been paid if the person’s earned income for that period was the same as immediately before the period to which the prescribed element is attributable.

The sum claimed in the Recoupment Notice will be payable forthwith to the Secretary of State. The balance of the remuneration under the protective award is then payable to the employee, subject to the deduction of any tax or social security contributions.

A Recoupment Notice must be served within the period of 21 days after the Secretary of State has received from the respondent the above-mentioned information required to be given by the respondent to the Secretary of State or as soon as practicable thereafter.

After paying the balance of the remuneration (less tax and social security contributions) to the employee, the respondent will not be further liable to the employee. However, the sum claimed in a Recoupment Notice is due from the respondent as a debt to the Secretary of State, whatever may have been paid to the employee, and regardless of any dispute between the employee and the Secretary of State as to the amount specified in the Recoupment Notice.
