

EMPLOYMENT TRIBUNALS

Claimant: Mr E Duke-Okeze

Respondent: Amazon UK Services Ltd

Heard at: East London Employment Tribunals

On: 18 January 2024

Before: Employment Judge Jones

Representation

Claimant: no attendance

Respondent: Mr C Ludlow of Counsel

JUDGMENT

1. The claim is struck out under Employment Tribunal Rule 37(1)(c) because the claimant has failed to comply with the Tribunal orders made at the preliminary hearing on 10 July 2023, which the Claimant attended, and which were sent to the parties in writing on 18 August 2023.
2. The claim is also struck out under Employment Tribunal Rule 37(1)(d) because it has not been actively pursued. The Claimant has failed to respond to communication sent to him by the Respondent and the Tribunal since September 2023.
3. The hearing dates of 24 – 26 July 2024 are vacated.

Employment Judge Jones

Notes

Reasons for the judgment having been given orally at the hearing, written reasons will not be provided unless a request was made by either party at the hearing or a written request is presented by either party within 14 days of the sending of this written record of the decision.

Public access to employment tribunal decisions

Judgments and reasons for the judgments are published, in full, online at www.gov.uk/employment-tribunal-decisions shortly after a copy has been sent to the claimant(s) and respondent(s) in a case.

Recording and Transcription

Please note that if a Tribunal hearing has been recorded you may request a transcript of the recording, for which a charge may be payable. If a transcript is produced it will not include any oral judgment or reasons given at the hearing. The transcript will not be checked, approved or verified by a judge. There is more information in the joint Presidential Practice Direction on the Recording and Transcription of Hearings, and accompanying Guidance, which can be found here:
