DECISION

The tribunal determines:

- (1) The estimated services charges in the sum of £85,090 sought for the service charge year ending 30/09/2015 are reasonable and payable in accordance with the terms of the leases(s).

NB: The tribunal was not provided with actual costs incurred for the subject service charge year and therefore remain open to challenge by the lessees.

The application

1. The Applicant seeks a determination pursuant to s.27A of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1985 ("the 1985 Act as to the reasonableness and liability to pay estimated service charges for the service charge year ended 30/09/2015).
2. The relevant legal provisions are set out in the Appendix to this decision.

The hearing

3. Directions were given by the tribunal on 10/09/2015 to which, there was no response by the lessees and no further information provided by the Applicant, contrary to the directions made. Therefore, the tribunal therefore proceeded to determine this matter on the papers provided by the Applicant.

The background

4. The property, which is the subject of this application, is a purpose built mansion block of 26 residential flats.
5. Neither party requested an inspection and the tribunal did not consider that one was necessary, nor would it have been proportionate to the issues in dispute.
6. The Applicant holds a long lease of the property, which requires the landlord to provide services and the tenant to contribute towards their costs by way of a variable service charge.

The issues

7. The tribunal is asked to determine the reasonableness and liability to pay the attached estimated service charge budget for the service charge year ending 30/09/2015 in the sum of £85,090.

The tribunal's decision

8. In the absence of any objection by any of the lessees to the estimated charges, the tribunal determines that they are reasonable and payable in accordance with the terms of the leases(s). The tribunal notes that clause 3 of the specimen lease provided for Flat 1, interim service charges are payable by the lessees in advance although are subject to adjustment pending the calculation of actual costs incurred.
