

Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA)

Decision notice

Date: 19 June 2018

Public Authority: Home Office
Address: 2 Marsham Street
London
SW1P 4DF

Decision (including any steps ordered)

1. The complainant has requested information from the Home Office in relation to the assistance it provided to an author in relation to the writing of a book.
2. The Commissioner's decision is that the Home Office has breached section 10(1) of the FOIA in that it failed to provide a valid response to the request within the statutory time frame of 20 working days.
3. The Commissioner requires the Home Office to take the following steps to ensure compliance with the legislation.
 - The Home Office must issue a substantive response to the request in accordance with its obligations under the FOIA.
4. The Home Office must take these steps within 35 calendar days of the date of this decision notice. Failure to comply may result in the Commissioner making written certification of this fact to the High Court pursuant to section 54 of the Act and may be dealt with as a contempt of court.

Request and response

5. On 25 January 2018, the complainant wrote to the Home Office and requested information in the following terms:

"I understand that the Home Office assisted [content redacted]. I am interested in correspondence and other documents concerning the Home Office involvement with the book."

6. The Home Office responded on 19 February 2018, confirming that it was extending the 20 working day response period to 22 March 2018 to consider the public interest test for sections 24 and 31.
7. The complainant wrote to the Home Office on 26 March and 4 April 2018 to chase the response, each time the Home Office responded stating that the request was being dealt with and that it would respond in due course. To date, a substantive response has not been issued.

Scope of the case

8. The complainant contacted the Commissioner on 4 April 2018 to complain about the Home Office's failure to provide a substantive response.
9. On 25 May 2018 the Commissioner wrote to the Home Office, reminding it of its responsibilities and asking it to provide a substantive response to the complainant within 10 working days.
10. Despite this intervention the Home Office has failed to respond to the complainant.

Reasons for decision

11. Section 1(1) of the FOIA states that:

"Any person making a request for information to a public authority is entitled –

- (a) to be informed in writing by the public authority whether it holds information of the description specified in the request, and*
- (b) if that is the case, to have that information communicated to him."*

12. Section 10(1) of the FOIA states that a public authority must respond to a request promptly and "not later than the twentieth working day following the date of receipt."
13. From the evidence provided to the Commissioner in this case, it is clear that the Home Office did not deal with the request for information in accordance with the FOIA. The Commissioner finds that the Home Office has breached section 10(1) by failing to respond to the request within 20 working days and it is now required to respond to the request in accordance with the FOIA.
