

Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA)

Decision notice

Date: 18 January 2023

Public Authority: Independent Office for Police Conduct (IOPC)

Address: 90 High Holborn
London
Greater London
WC1V 6BH

Decision (including any steps ordered)

1. The complainant requested information from the IOPC about the employment details of a specific officer.
2. The Commissioner's decision is that the IOPC has breached section 10(1) of FOIA by failing to provide a valid response to the request within the statutory time frame of 20 working days. No steps are required.

Request and response

3. On 25 August 2022, the complainant made the following request for information:

"Has there been a referral to the IOPC about the police officer referred to in the attached case judgement and if so has that officer been dismissed and has that officers name been put on the Police barred list and what Force does or did that officer work for?"

4. The IOPC responded to the request for information on 15 December 2022.

Reasons for decision

5. Section 1(1) of FOIA states that:

"Any person making a request for information to a public authority is entitled –

(a) to be informed in writing by the public authority whether it holds information of the description specified in the request, and

(b) if that is the case, to have that information communicated to him."

6. Section 10(1) of FOIA states that a public authority must respond to a request promptly and "not later than the twentieth working day following the date of receipt".
7. From the evidence provided to the Commissioner in this case, it is clear that the IOPC did not deal with the request for information in accordance with FOIA. The Commissioner finds that the IOPC has breached section 10(1) by failing to respond to the request within 20 working days.
