

Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA)

Decision notice

Date: 26 May 2023

Public Authority: Chief Constable of Avon & Somerset
Constabulary

Address: PO Box 37
Valley Road
Portishead
Bristol
BS20 8QJ

Decision (including any steps ordered)

---

1. The complainant requested information from Avon and Somerset Constabulary ("the Constabulary") about correspondence between the Constabulary's staff and Priti Patel and logs relating to the Kill the Bill protests. By the date of this notice the Constabulary had not issued a substantive response to this request.
2. The Commissioner's decision is that the Constabulary has failed to complete its deliberations on the balance of the public interest within a reasonable time and has therefore breached section 17(3) of FOIA.
3. The Commissioner requires the Constabulary to take the following step to ensure compliance with the legislation.
  - Having confirmed whether or not information is held within the scope of the request: either disclose the requested information, if held, or, to the extent that information is to be withheld, issue a refusal notice in accordance with the requirements of section 17 of the FOIA.
4. The Constabulary must take this step within 35 calendar days of the date of this decision notice. Failure to comply may result in the Commissioner making written certification of this fact to the High Court pursuant to section 54 of FOIA and may be dealt with as a contempt of court.

Request and response

5. On 3 February 2023, the complainant made the following request for information to the Constabulary:

"Please accept this request under the Freedom of Information Act. I'm seeking:

- All emails and/or WhatsApp messages exchanged between Avon and Somerset chief constable Andy Marsh and home secretary Priti Patel between 21-27 March 2021.
- All emails and/or WhatsApp messages exchanged between Avon and Somerset chief superintendent Will White and home secretary Priti Patel between 21-27 March 2021.
- All emails and/or WhatsApp messages exchanged between Avon and Somerset detective superintendent Mark Edgington and home secretary Priti Patel between 21-27 March 2021.
- Copies of any Public Order Incident Command Logs completed in relation to the Kill the Bill protests between 21-26 March 2021."

6. On 3 March 2023, the Constabulary wrote to the complainant to explain that it held information relevant to the complainant's request, but that it would need to extend the time taken to complete its public interest test considerations in respect of section 31 of FOIA.

Reasons for decision

---

7. Section 1(1) of FOIA states that:

"Any person making a request for information to a public authority is entitled –

(a) to be informed in writing by the public authority whether it holds information of the description specified in the request, and

(b) if that is the case, to have that information communicated to him.”

8. Section 10(1) of FOIA states that a public authority must respond to a request promptly and “not later than the twentieth working day following the date of receipt”.
9. Section 17(3) of FOIA states that where a public authority is relying on a qualified exemption, it can have a “reasonable” extension of time to consider the public interest in maintaining the exemption or disclosing the information.
10. FOIA does not define how long a reasonable time is. The section 45 Code of Practice on request handling states that “it is best practice for an extension to be for no more than a further 20 working days”.<sup>1</sup> This means that the total time spent responding to a request should not exceed 40 working days unless there are exceptional circumstances.
11. On 5 May 2023 the Commissioner wrote to the Constabulary, reminding it of its responsibilities and asking it to provide a substantive response to the complainant within 10 working days. To date, a substantive response has still not been provided.
12. In this case, the total time taken by the Constabulary has exceeded 40 working days. The Commissioner does not consider there to be any exceptional circumstances and finds that, by failing to complete its deliberations on the public interest within a reasonable time frame, the Constabulary has not complied with section 17(3).
13. The Constabulary is now required to finalise its public interest considerations under section 17(3) of FOIA and respond to the complainant.
