3. Christopher Broom (“the opponent”) filed a notice of opposition under the fast-track opposition procedure on 31 December 2019. The opposition, which is based upon sections 5(1) and 5(2)(b) of the Trade Marks Act 1994 (“the Act”), is directed against all the goods in the application. The opponent relies upon all the goods for which the following UK trade mark is registered:

Mark: ACTIVE FIXINGS

UK registration no. 3413379

Filing date: 11 July 2019

Registration date: 13 December 2019

The opponent relies on all goods and services covered under the registration. The full list is shown at Annex A.

4. The applicant filed a counterstatement denying the grounds of opposition. As these are the only submissions from the applicant, I have reproduced those below in full:

“1. Our company name is ACTIVE FIXINGS LIMITED and we are a limited company registered under the companies act and our registrations number is 11980410. Our company was registered on 7th May'2019.

2. Our company is also VAT registered having registration number 323 7213 31 registered on 7th May'2019.

3. Our Domain Names (www.activefixings.co.uk and www.activefixings.com) were booked on 23 January'2019 (You can verify from whois.com website also). We are already receiving emails on these domains and IPO is also doing correspondence on sales@activefixings.co.uk.

4. We are also already doing active trading and the proper VAT returns are filed. We are using our name as our logo on the invoices and marketing emails since the beginning of our operations.

5. If the other party is already doing active trading then they must have the company registered, raising invoices and other activities like filing proper VAT returns, having bank accounts etc etc.

6. It seems that somebody is trying to disturb our business by creating such activities of using ACTIVE FIXINGS as a trade mark and this trade mark is something not very common or fancy for anyone to use unless they have their company name starting with active fixings like we have.

7. We tried to contact at the given phone number of the other party but nobody answered on that number.

8. We already have bank account with the name ACTIVE FIXINGS LIMITED opened on 24th June'2019 and doing the regular transactions since we opened the account.

9. We had applied for the registration of trade mark 20th August 2019 before the other Trade Mark was registered on 13 December '2019.

10. We had intimated the intellectual property office on 28th October'2019 (copy available) when we found on IPO website that another company had applied for the trade mark at the same time and we had provided the evidence of our existence also as our application was pending with IPO.”

5. Rules 20(1)-(3) of the Trade Marks Rules (“TMR”) (the provisions which provide for the filing of evidence) do not apply to fast track oppositions but Rule 20(4) does. It reads:

“(4) The registrar may, at any time, give leave to either party to file evidence upon such terms as the registrar thinks fit”.

6. The effect of the above is to require parties to seek leave in order to file evidence (other than the proof of use evidence which is filed with the notice of opposition) in fast track oppositions. No leave was sought in respect of these proceedings.

7. Rule 62(5) (as amended) states that arguments in fast track proceedings shall be heard orally only if (i) the Office requests it or (ii) either party to the proceedings requests it and the Registrar considers that oral proceedings are necessary to deal with the case justly and at proportionate cost. Otherwise, written arguments will be taken. A hearing was neither requested nor considered necessary.

8. BES Legal Ltd filed a written submission on behalf of the opponent. However, as they have not filed a form TM33P to record themselves as the opponent's representative, despite being asked to do so as per the official letter dated 25 June 2020, I consider the opponent as representing himself in the current proceedings. The applicant is a litigant in person.

Preliminary Issues

9. In oppositions based on sections 5 (1) and 5(2), I am required to assess the identity/similarity of the competing marks and goods. Although the applicant in its counter statement has denied that the competing marks and goods are identical or similar, none of the reasons contained therein addresses the issue of identity or similarity. Therefore, I find the counter statement to be of no assistance to me. I will, however, clarify some of the concerns the applicant has raised. Under paragraphs 5 and 6 of the counter statement, the applicant makes the following submissions:

“5. If the other party is already doing active trading then they must have the company registered, raising invoices and other activities like filing proper VAT returns, having bank accounts etc.

6. It seems that somebody is trying to disturb our business by creating such activities of using ACTIVE FIXINGS as a trade mark and this trade mark is something not very common or fancy for anyone to use unless they have their company name starting with active fixings like we have.”

10. According to Chapter 3 of the Trade Marks Manual,<sup>1</sup> the applicant of a trade mark must either be an individual (a natural person) or a legal person such as company or partnership. Once a trade mark is registered, the proprietor has five-years to put the mark to genuine use in relation to the goods for which it is registered.<sup>2</sup> It follows that Christopher Broom is not required to register a company to own a trade mark as he can own a trade mark in his individual capacity. The trade mark Mr Broom is relying upon under the current proceedings had not been registered more than five years before the date of application of the applied-for mark. Therefore, he is also not required to provide supporting documents such as invoices to prove use of the mark.

DECISION

Sections 5(1) and 5(2)(b)

11. The opposition is based upon sections 5(1) and 5(2)(b) of the Act, which read as follows:

“5. (1) A trade mark shall not be registered if it is identical with an earlier trade mark and the goods or services for which the trade mark is applied for are identical with the goods or services for which the earlier trade mark is protected.

(2) A trade mark shall not be registered if because—

(b) it is similar to an earlier trade mark and is to be registered for goods or services identical with or similar to those for which the earlier trade mark is protected, there exists a likelihood of confusion of the part of the public, which includes the likelihood of association with the earlier trade mark”.

12. An earlier trade mark is defined in s. 6 of the Act, the relevant parts of which state:

“6. - (1) In this Act an “earlier trade mark” means -

(a) a registered trade mark, international trade mark (UK) or Community trade mark or international trade mark (EC) which has a date of application for registration earlier than that of the trade mark in question, taking account (where appropriate) of the priorities claimed in respect of the trade marks,

(2) References in this Act to an earlier trade mark include a trade mark in respect of which an application for registration has been made and which, if registered, would be an earlier trade mark by virtue of subsection (1)(a) or (b), subject to its being so registered”.

13. The trade mark upon which the opponent relies qualifies as an earlier trade mark under the above provisions.

Sections 5(1)

14. In order to get an objection under the above section off the ground, the competing trade marks must be identical. In S.A. Société LTJ Diffusion v Sadas Vertbaudet SA, Case C-291/00, the Court of Justice of the European Union (“CJEU”) held, that:

“54 [...] a sign is identical with the trade mark where it reproduces, without any modification or addition, all the elements constituting the trade mark or where, viewed as a whole, it contains differences so insignificant that they may go unnoticed by an average consumer”.

15. The opponent’s mark consists of the words “ACTIVE FIXINGS”. All the elements of the opponent’s mark are reproduced without any modification or addition in the applicant’s mark. The respective marks are, therefore, self-evidently identical.

Comparison of goods

16. All of the applicant’s goods are identically contained in the opponent’s specification. The goods are, therefore, self-evidently identical.

Conclusion

17. The opposition has succeeded in full under section 5(1) of the Act. It is, therefore, not required to consider the ground of opposition based on section 5(2)(b). The application will be refused.

Costs

18. The opponent has been successful and is entitled to an award of costs. As the opponent is without legal representation, and is therefore 'a litigant in person', the Tribunal invited the opponent to submit a breakdown of the actual costs it has incurred in the proceedings. The opponent was advised that if the cost pro-forma was not completed and returned, costs other than the official fees may not be awarded. The Tribunal has not received the completed cost pro-forma. I am, therefore, minded to award the opponent only £100 to cover the official fee.

19. I order Active Fixings Ltd to pay Christopher Broom the sum of £100. This sum is to be paid within twenty-one days of the expiry of the appeal period or within twenty-one days of the final determination of this case if any appeal against this decision is unsuccessful.
