

Judgment of the Lords of the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council on the Petition of Venganat Swaroopathil Valia Nambidi Avergal (named Vasudeva Revi Varma) for special leave to appeal to His Majesty in Council from certain decrees of the High Court of Judicature at Madras, pronounced in the matter of two Suits between Oherakunnath Nambiyathan Nambudris Son Khrishnan Nambudripad and another (Plaintiff's in the first Suit and Defendants in the second Suit), and the said Venganat Swaroopathil Valia Nambidi Avergal (Defendant in the first Suit and Plaintiff in the second Suit); delivered the 15th February 1906.

Present :

LORD DAVEY.

SIR ANDREW SCOBLE.

SIR ARTHUR WILSON.

[Delivered by Lord Davey.]

THEIR Lordships do not think that this is a case in which they can advise His Majesty to grant special leave to appeal. Their Lordships desire to add that it would be convenient if the High Court, on future occasions, in refusing a certificate for leave to appeal, would be good enough to state the grounds on which they refused it.
