LORD MACNAGHTEN.

LORD ATKINSON.

SIR J. H. DE VILLIERS.

SIR ANDREW SCOBLE.

SIR ARTHUR WILSON.

[Delivered by Lord Macnaghten.]

In this case the Patentee has received considerable remuneration, but, having regard to the merits of the invention and its utility, and the difficulty which the Patentee must necessarily have found in bringing the invention to the notice of the public—he could not do so except by exhibits—their Lordships will humbly recommend to His Majesty to extend the Letters Patent for a term of three years.
