CHAPTER 30.

An Act to amend the law relating to Trunk Roads ; and for purposes connected therewith. [6th March 1946.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

1.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the roads specified in the First Schedule to this Act shall become trunk roads as from the first day of April, nineteen hundred and forty-six.

(2) The Minister shall keep under review the national system of routes for through traffic in Great Britain, and if he is satisfied, after taking into consideration the requirements of local and national planning, including the requirements of agriculture, that it is expedient for the purpose of extending, improving or reorganising that system that any existing road, or any road proposed to be constructed by him, should become a trunk road, or that any trunk road should cease to be a trunk road, he may by order direct that that road shall become, or as the case may be shall cease to be, a trunk road as from such date as may be specified in that behalf in the order.

(3) Section two of the principal Act (which excludes from the roads that are trunk roads under that Act roads in London and roads in county boroughs) shall cease to have effect, except as respects roads in the City of London :

Provided that, without prejudice to the provisions of subsection (1) of this section or to any order made under subsection (2) of this section, no road which was not a trunk road immediately before the commencement of this Act shall become a trunk road by virtue only of this subsection.

(4) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the principal Act shall apply in relation to roads which become or cease to be trunk roads by virtue of this section, or of any order made thereunder, as it applies in relation to roads becoming or ceasing to be trunk roads under that Act.

General provisions as to orders under section 1.

2.—(1) The provisions of the Second Schedule to this Act shall be complied with in connection with the making of an order under subsection (2) of section one of this Act; and if objection to the order is duly made in accordance with the provisions of the said Schedule by a council who are responsible for the maintenance of any road to which the order relates, or who will become so responsible by virtue of the order, and is not withdrawn, the order shall be provisional only and shall be subject to special parliamentary procedure.

(2) Where any such order directs that an existing road shall become a trunk road, or that a road shall cease to be a trunk road, the date to be specified in that behalf in the order shall be the first day of April next after the date on which the order takes effect, or, where the order directs both that a road shall cease to be a trunk road and that a road proposed to be constructed by the Minister on a new route in substitution therefor shall become a trunk road, the first day of April next after the date on which notice is given by the Minister to the council who will become responsible for the maintenance of the first-mentioned road that the new route is opened for the purposes of through traffic.

(3) Where any such order directs that a road shall cease to be a trunk road, then, as from the date specified in that behalf in the order, the following authority, that is to say—

- (a) where the road is situated within a rural district, a county borough or a metropolitan borough, the council of the county comprising that district or the council of the county borough or metropolitan borough, as the case may be;
- (b) where the road is situated within any other borough or within an urban district, the council of the county comprising that borough or district, or the council of the borough or district, according as the road is or is not designated by the order as a classified road,

shall become the highway authority for the road:

Provided that in the case of a road in the county of London—

- (a) where the road includes a bridge or tunnel which, immediately before the road became a trunk road, was vested in the London County Council, that council shall become the highway authority for the bridge or tunnel and so much of the road as is carried thereby, but without prejudice to any liability of the council of any metropolitan borough to maintain and repair the carriageways and footways over any such bridge; and

(b) if the Minister, after consultation with the London County Council and the council of the metropolitan borough in which the road is situated, considers that any other bridge or tunnel forming part of the road ought to be vested in the London County Council, the order may direct that that council shall become the highway authority for that bridge or tunnel and so much of the road as is carried thereby.

(4) A road for which the council of a county or of a county borough become the highway authority by virtue of the last foregoing subsection shall be deemed to be a county road, and in relation to a road for which the council of a county so become the highway authority section thirty-two of the Local Government Act, 1929 (which entitles the councils of certain boroughs and urban districts to claim the functions of maintenance and repair of county roads), shall have effect as if the road had become a county road on the date on which the order takes effect, but any functions of maintenance and repair claimed under the said section shall not be exercisable until the date on which the road becomes a county road.

(5) If any order made under section one of this Act, being an order which directs that a road proposed to be constructed by the Minister shall become a trunk road, is revoked or varied by a subsequent order made at any time before the date on which that road is opened for the purposes of through traffic, the revoking or varying order shall not be deemed for the purposes of this section to be an order directing that a road shall cease to be a trunk road.

3.—(1) Where the Minister proposes to make an order under section one of this Act directing that any road shall become a trunk road and the Minister considers it expedient that that road, when it becomes a trunk road, should be used only for traffic passing in one direction, and that any other road, being a trunk road or a road which is to become a trunk road by virtue of the order, should be used only for traffic passing in the other direction, then, without prejudice to the power of the Minister to make orders under section forty-six of the Road Traffic Act, 1930, the order under the said section one may make provision for restricting the use of those roads accordingly as from such date as may be specified in that behalf in the order, and thereupon the said provision shall have effect as if it were contained in an order made under subsection (2) of the said section forty-six, and the provisions of that section shall apply in relation thereto as they apply in relation to an order made under that subsection.

(2) Without prejudice to the powers of the Minister to improve trunk roads by the construction of cycle tracks and foot-paths for use in connection therewith, or to provide such tracks or paths as part of any trunk road which he is authorised to construct, the power to make orders under section one of this Act directing that roads proposed to be constructed by the Minister shall become trunk roads may be exercised in relation to any such track or path proposed to be constructed by the Minister upon land separated by intervening land from the road in connection with which it is to be used; and any reference in the principal Act or this Act to a trunk road shall be construed as including a reference to a cycle track or footpath to which any such order relates:

Provided that in the application of the Act of 1935 to any such track or path as aforesaid, section one of that Act (which relates to the adoption of standard widths) shall not apply, and subsection (1) of section two of that Act (which relates to the restriction of development along the frontages of roads) shall have effect as if for the reference in paragraph (b) thereof to land within two hundred and twenty feet from the middle of the road there were substituted a reference to land forming the site of the track or path.

(3) For the avoidance of doubt it is hereby declared that in calculating for the purposes of the Act of 1935 the middle of any trunk road in connection with which a cycle track or footpath is constructed, so much of the track or path as is separated from the road by any land not forming part of that road is to be disregarded.

Additional powers relating to side roads connected with trunk roads.

4.—(1) Without prejudice to the powers of the Minister as highway authority to construct and improve roads, the Minister may be authorised by means of an order made by him in accordance with the provisions of the Second Schedule to this Act—

- (a) to carry out, in relation to any road specified in the order, such improvements as may be so specified, being improvements which the Minister considers it expedient to carry out for the purpose of effecting a safer or more convenient junction between a trunk road and any other road;
- (b) to construct any road on a route so specified, being a road which the Minister considers it expedient to construct for the purposes aforesaid, or for the purpose of effecting a safe and convenient junction between a new road constructed by him as a trunk road and any road connected with a road which ceases to be a trunk road;
- (c) subject as hereinafter provided, to stop up either entirely or to such extent as may be so specified, any junction between a trunk road and any other road, being a junction which the Minister considers it necessary or expedient so to stop up in the interest of the safety of persons or vehicles using those roads respectively:

Provided that the Minister shall not make an order authorising him to stop up any such junction unless he is satisfied that a sufficient alternative connection with the trunk road is available within four hundred and forty yards of the existing junction, or unless the order provides for the carrying out of such works as the Minister considers necessary for the provision of such an alternative connection before the existing junction is stopped up.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this section, the execution of any works by the Minister in accordance with an order made under this section shall be deemed for the purposes of the principal Act to be an improvement of the trunk road in connection with which they are executed, and without prejudice to the foregoing provision any such order may direct that, as from such date as may be specified in that behalf in the order, section four of the principal Act (which modifies the Act of 1935 in its application to trunk roads) shall apply in relation to any road proposed to be constructed by the Minister in accordance with the order, or in relation to so much of any road as the Minister proposes to improve thereunder, as if it had become a trunk road on that date.

(3) An order under this section which provides for the improvement by the Minister of any road may direct that any land acquired by the Minister for the purpose shall, as from such date as may be determined by or under the order, vest in the highway authority for that road ; and an order under this section which provides for the construction by the Minister of a road may direct that, as from such date as may be so determined, the following authority, that is to say—

- (a) where the road is situated within a rural district, a county borough or a metropolitan borough, the council of the county comprising that district or the council of the county borough or metropolitan borough, as the case may be ;
- (b) where the road is situated within any other borough or within an urban district, the council of the county comprising that borough or district, or the council of the borough or district, according as the road is or is not designated by the order as a classified road,

shall become the highway authority for the road.

(4) The provisions of section seven of the principal Act (which relates to the transfer of property and liabilities), and the transitional provisions contained in the Fifth Schedule to that Act, shall apply in relation to a road for which any council become the highway authority by virtue of an order under this section as if it had previously been a trunk road, and subsection (4) of section two of this Act shall apply in relation to a road for which the council of a county or county borough become the highway authority by virtue of such an order as it applies in the case of orders made under section one of this Act.

Exercise by Minister of certain powers to purchase land
in connection with trunk
roads.

5.—(1) In relation to a trunk road, the power of a highway authority under section thirteen of the Act of 1935 to acquire land for purposes other than the construction or improvement of the road (that is to say the power to acquire land within two hundred and twenty yards from the middle of the road for the purpose of preventing the erection of buildings detrimental to the view from the road, and the power to acquire land by agreement for the purpose of preserving the amenities of the locality in which the road is situated) shall be exercisable by the Minister as well as by the authority by whom functions are exercisable under section one and section two of the said Act.

(2) Section five of the principal Act (which enables the Minister to delegate to certain councils functions relating to trunk roads) and subsection (1) of section six of that Act (which enables the Minister to make agreements with such councils for the carrying out of works of improvement of or other dealings with trunk roads) shall apply in relation to any land purchased under this section, notwithstanding that the land does not form part of a trunk road, as they apply in relation to a trunk road.

Bridges and tunnels over and under navigable waters.

6.—(1) Without prejudice to any power of the Minister to construct bridges or tunnels for the purposes of trunk roads provision may be made by an order under section one of this Act for the construction as part of a trunk road of a bridge over any navigable waters specified in the order, or of a tunnel under any such waters :

Provided that before making an order providing for the construction of any such bridge or tunnel, the Minister shall take into consideration the reasonable requirements of navigation over the waters affected by the order.

(2) An order which provides for the construction of such a bridge shall include such plans and specifications as may be necessary to indicate the position and dimensions of the proposed bridge, including the spans, headways and waterways thereof and, in the case of a swing bridge, shall contain such provision as the Minister considers expedient for regulating the operation of the bridge ; and an order which provides for the construction of such a tunnel shall include such plans and specifications as may be necessary to indicate the position and dimensions of the proposed tunnel, including the depth thereof below the bed of the sea, river or other navigable waters, as the case may be.

(3) In relation to any such order as aforesaid, paragraph 2 and 4 of the Second Schedule to this Act shall have effect as if any reference therein to the councils specified in the said paragraph 2 included a reference to every navigation authority or catchment board concerned with or having jurisdiction over the waters affected or the area comprising those waters; and if objection to the order is duly made in accordance with the provisions of the said Schedule by any such authority or board as aforesaid on the ground that the bridge or tunnel is likely to obstruct or impede the performance of their functions under any enactment, or to interfere with the reasonable requirements of navigation over the waters affected by the order, and the objection is not withdrawn, the order shall be subject to special parliamentary procedure.

(4) In this section the expression "enactment" includes a local or private Act and an order having the force of an Act, and the expression "navigation authority" means any person or body of persons, whether incorporated or not, having powers under any enactment to work, maintain, conserve, improve or control any canal or other inland navigation, navigable river, estuary, harbour or dock.

7.—(1) On the first day of April, nineteen hundred and forty-six, every bridge to which this section applies by which any road which is or becomes a trunk road on that date is carried shall be transferred to the Minister; and where an order is made under section one of this Act directing that any road specified in the order shall become a trunk road, every such bridge as aforesaid by which that road is carried shall be transferred to the Minister on the date on which the road becomes a trunk road:

Transfer to Minister of private bridges
carrying trunk roads.

Provided that if on the date aforesaid any part of the road carried by such a bridge is not a trunk road, the bridge shall not be transferred to the Minister by virtue of this section unless and until that part becomes a trunk road.

(2) Where a bridge is transferred to the Minister under this section then, subject as hereinafter provided, the bridge, including any building or structure comprised therein and the road carried thereby, shall by virtue of this section vest in the Minister for all the estate or interest of the owners therein, and thereupon—

- (a) the bridge shall for all purposes become part of the trunk road; and
- (b) notwithstanding anything in subsection (7) of section three of the principal Act, any liability of the owners for the improvement, maintenance or repair of the bridge or the road shall be extinguished; and
- (c) any statutory provision in force, in relation to the bridge, for the protection or benefit of any statutory undertakers shall have effect, subject to any necessary modifications, as if for any reference therein to the owners of the bridge there were substituted a reference to the Minister:

Provided that the Minister and the owners may, by agreement in writing made either before or after the date on which the bridge is so transferred, agree that the provisions of this subsection with respect to the transfer of property shall not apply, or as the case may be shall be deemed not to have applied, to such property comprised in the bridge as may be specified in the agreement.

(3) In respect of any bridge which is transferred to the Minister under this section, the owners shall pay to the Minister such sum as may be agreed between them and the Minister or, in default of such agreement, such sum as may be determined by arbitration, to represent the value to the owners of the extinguishment of their liability under the last foregoing subsection, and the Minister shall pay the owners such sum as may be so agreed or determined to represent the value to the owners of the bridge as an asset productive of revenue.

(4) Any sum payable by the owners of a bridge to the Minister under the last foregoing subsection shall, in so far as it exceeds any sum payable by the Minister to the owners thereunder, be paid, at the option of the owners—

- (a) as a lump sum ; or
- (b) by annual payments of such amount, and continuing for such number of years, as may be agreed between the owners and the Minister or, in default of agreement, determined by arbitration ; or
- (c) by perpetual annual payments of such amount as may be so agreed or determined.

(5) Where any bridge transferred to the Minister under this section carries the road over any railway, canal, road or other works used for the purposes of any undertaking carried on by the owners, then, so long as those works are so used—

- (a) the Minister shall before entering on any land of the owners for the purpose of executing any works for the maintenance, improvement or alteration of the bridge, give notice in writing to the owners specifying the general nature of the works proposed to be executed ; and
- (b) except with the consent of the owners, the Minister shall not reduce the headway or spans of the bridge ; and
- (c) if the headway of the bridge is reduced in consequence of subsidence due to mining operations, or of any works carried out by the owners for the purpose of raising the railway, canal, road or other works to a level not higher than their level before the subsidence occurred, the Minister shall, if so required by the owners, raise the bridge so far as may be necessary to give the same headway as before the subsidence occurred :

Provided that any consent required for the execution of any works by the Minister under this subsection shall not be unreasonably withheld, and if any question arises whether or not it is unreasonably withheld that question shall be determined by arbitration.

(6) The purposes for which a compulsory purchase order may be made under section fourteen of the Act of 1935, as applied in relation to trunk roads by section four of the principal Act, shall include the execution of any works (other than the reconstruction of a bridge on a different site) for the maintenance, improvement or alteration of any bridge transferred to the Minister under this section, and in relation to any such order subsections (2) and (3) of the said section fourteen shall have effect as if any reference therein to the construction of a bridge or the approaches thereof included a reference to the reconstruction or alteration of the bridge.

(7) Any dispute between the Minister and any authority or person as to the property or liabilities transferred under this section, or as to the liability of the Minister to carry out any works under this section, shall be determined by arbitration.

(8) For the purposes of subsection (3) of this section, a bridge shall not be treated as an asset productive of revenue unless at the time when the bridge is transferred under this section—

- (a) a contract is in force under which payments have been made or will accrue to the owners in respect of the use of the bridge ; or
- (b) the bridge includes any building constructed or adapted for use by the owners for the purposes of their undertaking or for letting to any other person.

(9) The bridges to which this section applies are bridges, including viaducts, which carry the road over any railway or road, over any canal, river, water-course, marsh or other place where water flows or is collected, or over any ravine or other depression, not being—

(10) Nothing in this section shall be construed as affecting the provisions of section seven of the principal Act with respect to the transfer to the Minister, as part of a trunk road, of any bridge vested in the former highway authority.

(11) Where a road carried by a bridge transferred to the Minister under this section ceases to be a trunk road, the Minister may contribute towards the expenses incurred in the maintenance and repair of the bridge by the council who become the highway authority for the road.

PROCEDURE FOR MAKING ORDERS.

2. Not later than the date on which the said notice is published as aforesaid, the Minister shall serve a copy thereof (together with a copy of the draft order and of any relevant map or plan) on the council of every county, county borough or metropolitan borough in which any road to which the order relates is situated, and, in the case of a road situated in any other borough or in an urban district, on the council of that borough or urban district.

Where the order provides for the stopping up of a junction between a trunk road and any other road, the Minister shall, not later than the date on which the notice is published as aforesaid, cause a copy thereof to be displayed in a prominent position at the junction which is proposed to be so stopped up.

4. If before the expiration of the said period of three months an objection is received by the Minister from any council on whom a notice is required to be served under this Schedule, or from any other person appearing to him to be affected by the order, and the objection is not withdrawn, the Minister shall cause a local inquiry to be held provided that except where the objection is made by any such council as aforesaid, the Minister may dispense with such an inquiry if he is satisfied that in the special circumstances of the case the holding of such an inquiry is unnecessary.

5. After considering any objections to the order which are not withdrawn, and, where a local inquiry is held, the report of the person who held the inquiry, the Minister may make the order either without modification or subject to such modifications as he thinks fit.
