EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations make changes to the National Insurance Contributions (Application of Part 7 of the Finance Act 2004) Regulations 2012 (S.I. 2012/1868) which apply, or correspond to, changes to Part 7 of the Finance Act 2004 (c. 12) (“Part 7”), or changes to instruments made under Part 7.

Regulations 3 to 6 introduce new disclosure obligations for promoters and users of national insurance contribution avoidance schemes. Under these provisions, if HMRC suspects a client list provided by a promoter is incomplete, they may require the promoter to provide further information. The provisions also introduce an obligation on users to provide prescribed information to promoters, which may then be passed on to HMRC by the promoters.

Regulations 7 to 12 make consequential amendments required following the automatic incorporation, by regulations 25 and 26 of S.I. 2012/1868, of changes made to S.I. 2006/1543 and S.I. 2012/1836.

Regulation 1(2) ensures that promoters are not liable to pay a penalty for a failure to disclose proposals or arrangements which relate to the period before the commencement of these Regulations, but which become notifiable as a consequence of these Regulations.

A Tax Information and Impact Note covering this instrument was published on 11th December 2012 and is available on the HMRC website at <http://www.hmrc.gov.uk/tiin/2012/tiin8003.htm>. It remains an accurate summary of the impacts that apply to this instrument.
