EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order brings into force certain provisions of the Pensions Act 2014 (c. 19) (“the Act”) on 11th September 2014, 12th September 2014, and 1st October 2014.

Article 2 commences the following provisions of the Act—

—section 23 which is commenced only in so far as is necessary for the commencement of paragraphs 96 and 97(b) of Schedule 12 which repeal certain provisions relating to additional state pension,

—section 25 and paragraphs 3, 7 and 17 of Schedule 15 which contain powers enabling regulations to be made underpinning the Class 3A voluntary National Insurance contribution/state pension top-up scheme by setting out the amount of the Class 3A contribution, the maximum amount of top-up that can be obtained, the rules about the repayment of contributions and when the scheme closes,

—section 33 and paragraph 15(1) of Schedule 17 which are commenced for the limited purpose of enabling a definition to come into force only in so far as it is needed for the purposes of paragraph 4(1) of Schedule 18,

—sections 37 to 40 which introduce changes to provisions in the Pensions Act 2008 (c. 30), sections 37 and 38 relate to exceptions from the duties imposed on employers by Part 1 of that Act, sections 39 and 40 relate to those employer duties where the employer provides an occupational pension scheme that produces defined benefits,

—section 42 which enables scheme trustees and managers to claim unpaid pension contributions from the Secretary of State in certain circumstances following the insolvency of the employer,

—section 43 and Schedule 18 which relate to the restriction of charges or the imposition of requirements with regard to administration and governance of certain pension schemes,

—section 45 which provides a power to make regulations in respect of a requirement to pay pension levies in respect of a past period,

—section 46 and Schedule 19 which insert a provision into the Pensions Act 1995 (c. 26) and make consequential amendments to that Act and to the Pensions Act 2004 (c. 35) in respect of orders prohibiting certain individuals or legal persons from being a trustee of a pension scheme,

—section 49 which amends section 63 of the Pensions Act 2004, extending the maximum period between scheme returns from 3 to 5 years in the case of a micro scheme.
