EXPLANATORY NOTE

These Regulations bring into force Part 8 of the Policing and Crime Act 2017 (c. 3) (“the Act”) in so far as it is not already in force. These are the second commencement regulations made under the Act.

Regulation 2 brings Part 8 of the Act into force on 1st April 2017 in so far as it is not already in force. Section 144 modifies the application of the European Communities Act 1972 (c. 68) to enable an increase in the maximum term of imprisonment for offences relating to financial sanctions. Section 145 extends the maximum term of imprisonment for offences under the Anti-terrorism, Crime and Security Act 2001 (c. 24) and the Counter-Terrorism Act 2008 (c. 28) to seven years on conviction on indictment, in line with the new maximum penalties enabled by section 144. Sections 146 to 149 of the Act introduce a new monetary penalties regime for breaching financial sanctions. Sections 150 and 151 of the Act expand the range of enforcement options to include deferred prosecution agreements and serious crime prevention orders.

Sections 152 and 153 of the Act provide the Treasury with the power to make regulations to create a temporary financial sanctions regime in order to implement a UN-mandated financial sanctions regime. Sections 154 and 155 enable the Treasury to make regulations linking UN financial sanctions Resolutions with the corresponding EU financial sanctions Regulations. This means that where a person is designated for the purposes of a UN financial sanctions Resolution, that person is to be treated for a temporary period as if included in the corresponding EU financial sanctions Regulation. Section 156 enables the temporary regime measures under sections 152 and 153 and temporary listing measures under sections 154 and 155 to be extended to the Bailiwick of Guernsey, the Isle of Man and the British Overseas Territories.
