Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order prescribes minus 0.25 per cent as the rate of return which, under section A1(1) of the Damages Act 1996 (c.48), courts are required to take into account when calculating damages for future pecuniary loss in an action for personal injury.

Because this is the first review of the rate of return since the commencement of Schedule A1 to the Damages Act 1996, the procedure set out in paragraph 2 of Schedule A1 to that Act applies.
