Notes

Please read these BEFORE completing the form

Servants

1. The exemption in section 8(1) of the Firearms Act 1968 covers the possession, purchase and acquisition of firearms and ammunition in the ordinary course of a registered firearms dealer's business. It extends to registered firearms dealers and their servants.
2. There is no legal definition of a 'servant', but it should be noted that a letter of authority does not automatically make someone a 'servant' for these purposes. An employee of the dealer working for a firearms-related business would be a 'servant', but it is not the case that anyone whose services the dealer uses on any occasion will necessarily be a servant e.g. a self-employed outworker (such as an engraver). In these circumstances the outworker would be required to register as a firearms dealer.
3. The possession, purchase and acquisition of the firearms and ammunition by a servant may only be for the ordinary course of the business of the dealer as directed by the dealer.

Medical information

4. Where an application is made on behalf of a company (Part C) the officer making the application should either have day to day responsibility for, or direct oversight of, the firearms held by that company.
5. You must disclose any relevant physical or mental health conditions that you have been diagnosed with or treated for in the past as this may affect your ability to safely possess firearms, shotguns or air weapons. Relevant medical conditions which must be disclosed are listed in note 6. Section 34 of the Firearms Act 1968 (as amended) specifies that in order to register a person as a firearms dealer, the chief officer of police must be satisfied that an applicant can be permitted to carry on business as a firearms dealer "without danger to the public safety or to the peace". Medical fitness is one of the factors police must consider when assessing this.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

6. Relevant medical conditions which must be disclosed are:
 - Acute Stress Reaction or an acute reaction to the stress caused by a trauma
 - Suicidal thoughts or self-harm
 - Depression or anxiety
 - Dementia
 - Mania, bipolar disorder or a psychotic illness
 - A personality disorder
 - A neurological condition: for example, Multiple Sclerosis, Parkinson’s or Huntington’s diseases, or epilepsy
 - Alcohol or drug abuse
 - Any other mental or physical condition which might affect your safe possession of a firearm or shotgun

If in doubt, consult your GP or contact the police firearms licensing department.
7. If you have disclosed a relevant medical condition the police may ask you to obtain a medical report from your GP/ specialist. You are expected to meet the cost if a fee is charged for this. If further information is required the police may request and pay for a further report.
8. Where no relevant medical conditions are disclosed the police will contact your GP asking if they are aware of any relevant medical conditions or have any concerns about your possession of firearms, shotguns or air weapons. Depending on the reply, the police may ask you to obtain a medical report from your GP/specialist. You are expected to meet the cost if a fee is charged for this. If further information is required the police may request and pay for a further report.
9. The police will ask your GP to place an encoded reminder on your patient record to indicate that you have been registered as a firearms dealer. The GP is asked to notify the police if, following your registration as a firearms dealer, you are diagnosed with or treated for a relevant medical condition (listed in note 6), or if the GP has other concerns about your safe possession of firearms, shotguns or air weapons. Following contact from your GP there may be a need for a medical report to be obtained to assist with assessment of your continued suitability to possess firearms, shotguns or air weapons. The police will pay if a medical report is required.
10. Following your registration as a firearms dealer please note that the declaration you have signed consenting to information sharing between your GP and police applies during the application process and during the validity of your registration.
11. You are expected to inform the police if, following registration as a dealer, you are diagnosed with or treated for a relevant medical condition while your registration as a firearms dealer remains valid.
12. You should inform the police if you change your GP practice and provide contact details for the new practice.
13. You are asked to provide details of GP practices over the past 10 years and whether you have consulted medical practitioners other than at your GP practice so that all relevant information is available to police to assist with their assessment of suitability to possess firearms, shotguns or air weapons.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Rules)

These Rules make amendments to the Firearms Rules 1998 (S.I. 1998/1941).

Rule 2(2) replaces the existing application form for registration as a firearms dealer or for a new certificate of registration as a firearms dealer. The amendments to the form impose a requirement on applicants to provide details of all servants who, by virtue of section 8(1) of the Firearms Act 1968 (c. 27) (the “1968 Act”), are or will be authorised to possess, purchase or acquire firearms and ammunition in the ordinary course of the applicant’s business. Applicants are also now required in certain circumstances to provide a personal health and medical declaration disclosing relevant medical conditions that may affect their suitability to carry on business as a firearms dealer without danger to the public safety or to the peace.

Rule 2(3) replaces the existing form which a registered firearms dealer uses to notify the chief officer of police for that area of a place of business not already entered in the register. The amendments to the form impose a requirement on registered firearms dealers to also provide details of all servants who, by virtue of section 8(1) of the 1968 Act, are or will be authorised to possess, purchase or acquire firearms and ammunition in the ordinary course of the registered firearms dealer’s business.

A full impact assessment of the effect that this instrument will have on the costs of business, the voluntary sector and the public sector is available at <http://legislation.gov.uk>. Hard copies can be obtained from the Serious Violence Unit, Home Office, 2 Marsham Street, SW1P 4DF.
